LAST DROP - JAMAICA

This rum's journey from Jamaica to Liverpool can be compared to that of a child who leaves home in pursuit of an education. Distilled from pure sugar cane in 1976, and put into ex-bourbon barrels to begin its long maturation, this rum spent its formative years at home in Jamaica, soaking up the tropical heat which contributes so much to the character and flavor of Caribbean rums. After several years enjoying the warmth of Jamaica, the barrels were loaded onto a ship which set sail for the west coast of Britain: Liverpool. There, in a cool setting, with the salty tang of the Irish Sea blowing through the warehouses, the rum settled down to begin a long, slow maturation. This 43 year old rum is undeniably delicious, with the richness of a classic Jamaica Rum, and the smoothness that comes with great age

Tasting Notes: The beautiful, rich, dark, bronze-like colour of this rum is all-natural. The legs are thick, viscous and slow as they trickle down the inside of glass-like "rum tears of joy". This rum exemplifies the Jamaican funk or "hogo" as the sweet nail polish, ripe apple, pears and tropical fruit caress your nose. There are subtle aromas of allspice & nutmeg that linger in the mix with dried wood and a touch of smoke. On the palate, an initial sweetness of summer marmalade transforms into a warm burnt caramel-like body with touches of smoke and tobacco.

BLACK TOT LAST CONSIGNMENT - BARBADOS

This rum is a piece of liquid history. It was bottled from antique stone flagons containing the last stocks of Royal Navy Rum which laid untouched for over four decades. The naval blend of rums such as this one had continually evolved for over 100 years, with much of it coming from distilleries long since lost. After 239 years of tradition, the last rum ration was issued aboard ships of the British Royal Navy on the 31st July 1970 – a day forever known as Black Tot Day. For many years after this, sealed away in those antique stone flagons, the rum we now call Black Tot Last Consignment was drawn upon only for use in state occasions and royal weddings. Remarkably, after all these years, Black Tot Last Consignment is still 54.3% (95° proof), almost exactly the original Navy issuing strength. This is a historical blend that can never be recreated.

Tasting Notes: Initial treacle notes precede dark chocolate with super-ripe black fruits, muscovado sugar and walnuts on the nose. A drop of water releases flavors of black banana, liquorice root and tamarind paste with an exotic edge of balsamic. The palates starts off thick and sweet with a burst of cassis, black coffee and cacao, leading into a finish of scented wood, forest fruits and cigar tobacco. Truly dark and powerful, with a century of rum-making craft showing in every drop. Followed by a very long finish with light scented wood, black fruits and cigar tobacco.

ANDRES BRUGAL - DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

We are proud to unveil Andrés Brugal; An exclusive prestige release of 460 bottles celebrating our founder's spirit of exploration and five generations of Maestros Roneros who travelled the globe to share the passion, warmth, and joy of Brugal's liquid artistry. A journey of excellence pioneered by our founding father and beginning more than 130 years ago. Five generations of Maestros Roneros have since forged this path of excellence, travelling the globe to share our exceptional rum with the world and opening the door to extraordinary encounters. It is the Maestros' Way: our unique way of crafting the finest spirit, of liberating the flavors from each precious cask and of sharing the very best of our rum with the world. Today, 5th Generation Maestra Ronera, Jassil Villanueva, has crafted the ultimate tribute to this enduring legacy and created a rum of astounding Dominican character. A masterful blend of first fill Oloroso Sherry and Bourbon single casks with two double-aged reserves creates a rare and exceptional rum of astounding Dominican character.

Tasting Notes The color of this rum is a deep warm radiant amber. On the nose it starts with rich notes of roasted coffee beans expertly balanced with the scent of freshly harvested cacao, layered gently with the sweet fragrance of homemade dulce de leche and the buttery softness of Dominican rum cake. The palate starts off with an enchanting combination of oak, vanilla bean and sweet caramel flan with the fresh scent of ripe berries delicately fragranced with warming notes of aromatic black peppercorn and sweet cloves.

PAPA ANDRES - DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

Papa Andres It is the greatest treasure of the Brugal family. The mixture was named after the founder Don Andres Brugal and has been in the Brugal family for five generations before it was released for sale. Each limited edition is different from the previous one, and the 2018 ODISEA edition is designed to pay tribute to our founders and celebrate 130 years of tradition. The carafe has an engraved metal collar next to a hand-polished sandblasted plate. It is presented in an elegant blue case with an intricate illustrative wave design that symbolizes Don Andrés' journey across the Atlantic. Only 1,000 pieces were produced for sale, which makes this rum unique and unusual.

Tasting Notes: Beautifully bright and a rich, golden color. On the nose it is delicate, with fruity nuances resulting from a marriage of rums from different types of casks. The palate is viscous and velvety, with subtle light and sweet notes. It coats the mouth, leaving you to savor the long, smooth and refined finish. The end is leaving you to savor a long, smooth and sophisticated finish.
